Feast of Our Mother of Perpetual Help

On Tuesday June 27, 2006, Christians around the world will celebrate the Feast Day of Our Mother of Perpetual Help. Spreading devotion to Our Mother of Perpetual Help has been part of the Redemptorist Mission since the miraculous icon was given to the Redemptorists by Pope Pius IX in 1866.

The original icon, which is now found at the Church of St. Alphonsus in Rome, is believed to have been written by St. Luke, the Evangelist.

Over the past number of centuries, this image of Mary as Perpetual Help has been, and continues to be a well known image of our Lady, and since the icon has been entrusted to the Redemptorists, devotion to Mary under this title has spread throughout the world. Many Shrines and places of pilgrimage are dedicated to Our Mother of Perpetual Help.

In Canada, Redemptorists serve at the National Shrine of Our Mother of Perpetual Help at St. Patrick's Church in Toronto. Throughout Canada, Redemptorist Parishes as well as other Parishes celebrate devotion to Our Mother of Perpetual Help. Every Wednesday on Vision TV, you can see and participate in the weekly devotions produced by the Redemptorists.

Blessed Gennaro Sarnelli C.Ss.R. Redemptorist Prophet of Justice

Blessed Gennaro Sarnelli C.Ss.R. was a contemporary of St. Alphonsus. He lived his religious life in service to the poor and marginalized in the big cities. As a prophet of justice, he wrote the following as part of a conference that he gave:

of God! The rich do not wish to vie the Lord in the person of the poor even a fraction of the goods of this world - not even to gain eternal life. The strictest judgment is reserved for those who have acted without mercy toward their neighbour!"

Taken from "In the Spirit of St. Alphonsus", Moran C.Ss.R.

"How many wealthy live today in Christendom! They spend their time at banquets, at feastings and diversions while the poor of Jesus Christ die of hunger. How many servants and hired hands are defrauded of their just recompense. How the poor struggle to collect what they have earned and would to God that they got it intact! How many rich there are that have a superabundance of everything - except

In this way they become the sign of that fraternal life of Christ's disciples, of whom it is said: "the whole group of believers was united, heart and soul; no one claimed for his own use anything that he had, as everything they owned was held in common" (Acts 4:32)

Are you wearing yours?

IT'S THE LATEST THING! AT LEAST FOR NOW!

If you aren't wearing the latest wristband, maybe you should let us know and we'll happily send you one. They are also available from your local Redemptorist Community, or will be available there soon! There are two lines to the wristband. The first line is the Motto of the Redemptorists in Latin. The second line is the website of the Redemptorists of the Edmonton-Toronto Province. If you want to know what the Motto: "Copiosa Apud Eum Redemptio" means, look it up on the website. The website contains an explanation of the Motto along with ways that we as Redemptorists are called to live out our mission in the Church and in the World! Also on the site is an outline of the ways that Youth and Young Adults can participate in that mission as well! So get your Redemptorist Wristband today! And check us out online!

S.E.R.V.E. is happening!

This year, S.E.R.V.E. (Summer Endeavor in a Redemptorist Volunteer Experience) is happening in both Saskatoon and Sudbury. S.E.R.V.E. is a 5 week live in Community and Service experience for 5-6 young adults. These young adults live together with Redemptorists and Redemptorist Lay Associates in the Rectories of St. Mary's Church (Saskatoon), and Holy Redeemer (Sudbury). During the day, the participants work in full-time volunteer ministries like soup-kitchens, food banks, homes for the aged, and in children's programs.

S.E.R.V.E. runs from May 13 - June 24, 2006. Please keep the Teams and the Participants from both locations in your prayers. To contact the groups to send prayers and best wishes, you can email: ryvm@redemptorists.com. Please specify which location the greeting is for and it will be forwarded to them.

Am I Called?

Discernment is NOT easy. Now that we got that out of the way, let's move on with our task!

Often when we try to reflect on our call from God, we get all caught up with questions, fears, expectations, and wondering what we'll have to give up to follow God with any vocation we are invited into, be it religious life, priesthood, marriage, or single life. Perhaps we have to think about what we have in us as internal assets that will contribute and lead to our discernment, instead of focusing on the fears of letting go of what we need to give up. The following are a series of questions to help you focus on your journey of discernment. Every couple of months, another set of questions will be listed in this newsletter to assist you in your reflection. These questions are adapted from the work of another Vocation Director, Sister Gloria Urabazo, MCDP, and reprinted in Horizon Magazine. Used with permission.

This Issue: "A time for everything"

This is the last segment of "Am I Called" for the year. If you are interested in seeing the entire article, contact Fr. Santo at the Vocation Office.

X. A Time for Everything

As a religious, you are called to a life of great responsibility as your role will be to lead the people of God.

This life will require of you a real sense of discipline, especially difficult because it will be enforced upon you by no outside authority, but yourself.

It is thus important to work towards a balanced life as a means to self discipline.

1. In your weekly routine, do you find time for the following: Work, serious reading, prayer, sleep, leisure, friends, home life, Christian involvement, review of your apostolic activities, etc.....
2. Is there an imbalance in the distribution of your time?
3. Decide on a "time-table" that will give you the frame work for your lifestyle.
4. Can you review this regularly?
